URGENT JAPANESE MOVE IN SIBERIA

London Papers Call for Action to Break Germany's Grip

SEE BOLSHEVIST FAILURE

London, May 18.—Allied intervention of a prompt nature in Russia, if what is alluded to as the rapid strengthening of German grip on the country is to be successfully combated, is being strongly urged by British newspapers.

The newspapers refer to Lord Robert Cecil's House of Commons remarks and the accumulating indications of the inability or unwillingness of the Bolsheviks to resist Germany. In some instances the advocates of intervention reiterate the earlier pleas for allowing Japan to act. The insistence upon Japan's disinterestedness is renewed, as is Japanese loyalty to the allies.

The Daily Telegraph concludes its article with these lines:

"The statement at Tokyo have made it quite clear that they have no covetous aims. In order to support the general policy of the Allies, and especially to protect Siberia from Teutonic rapacity, Japan, we are convinced, is ready to act in any way that promotes the ideals of the Entente Powers."

The Daily Chronicle, in commenting upon Lord Robert Cecil's "admirable sympathetic reference to Russia in the House of Commons yesterday," says that the more the Allies allow Russia to fall under German influence the harder it will be to extricate her eventually. It declares that Russia is "not a country to be recovered without foreign military intervention, adding:

"The weight of our intervention would necessarily be Japanese, but it would be given a broadly Allied and international character. For some time it has been said the Japanese are not to be trusted only, and now that we believe to be the case—the American Government's own agents are as much convinced as anybody else of the need for foreign troops. It is to be hoped that opportunity will be withdrawn."

JAPAN AND CHINA PLAN ACTION AGAINST KAISER

Tokyo, May 14.—Progress is being made in important negotiations between the Japanese and Chinese Governments for a military understanding. The fundamental idea is to reach a military agreement in common in the event of the extension of German influence eastward menacing the Pacific.

Reports that Japan contemplates taking an aggressive policy in China have excited considerable interest among the students in Tokyo. Five hundred scholars have returned to China to warn their countrymen. Baron Goto, Japanese Foreign Minister, has sent a memorandum to the principals of the Chinese schools in Japan, warning them of the danger to the Chinese military action against Germany in case of necessity.

BARON CHINDA ASSERTS JAPAN'S PLEDGE IS FIRM

From Today's Public Ledger

London, May 17.—Baron Chinda, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, speaking yesterday at a luncheon at the Foreign Press Association, declared that the Japanese pledge to the Allies was as firm as the Japanese Government's own existence. He said that the Japanese Government was not only ready to fight, but was also ready to make any sacrifice for the sake of the Allies.

"You can see through all these machinations," he proceeded, "that the Japanese Government is not only ready to fight, but is also ready to make any sacrifice for the sake of the Allies. The Japanese Government is not only ready to fight, but is also ready to make any sacrifice for the sake of the Allies."

DYING U. S. SOLDIER STRANGLES A GERMAN

Head: Continues to Lead Men Until Killed

With the American Army in France, May 18.—Several new instances of unusual bravery by American troops on the Western front were reported today. One of the most striking was the case of a young American soldier who, in the face of a German machine gun, strangled a German soldier with his bare hands.

WATCH NOULENS CASE

If He Leaves Russia Other Countries May Recall Ambassadors

London, May 18.—Other Allied envoys will follow if the French ambassador to Russia, Joseph Noulens, is compelled to leave the country, says a dispatch from Moscow. In Soviet circles, the message continues, it is expected that Noulens will be recalled soon, but if France refuses to do so he will be declared to be a private citizen.

AVIATOR GILBERT DEAD

Meets Death in Aerial Accident in France

Paris, May 18.—Eugene Gilbert, French aviator, has met his death in an airplane accident. He was flying over the English Channel when his plane crashed into the sea. Gilbert was a well-known aviator and had been flying for several years.

Limit Telegrams to Russia

Special Cable to Evening Public Ledger

St. Petersburg, May 18.—Dagena Nyboder's Moscow correspondent says that the Russian Government has decided to limit the number of telegrams sent to Russia from the United States. The limit is to be set at ten telegrams per day.

RUSSIANS SELL OUT TO THE GERMANS

Turn Over Stock of Industrial and Financial Institutions at Panic Prices

Stockholm, May 18.—Germany is taking full advantage of the chaotic economic conditions in Russia by increasing German influence and control over Russian industrial and financial institutions. Russian capitalists and financiers are being forced to sell their property to the Germans at panic prices.

Transactions of this nature are being carried out through the Russian Government, which is acting as a broker for the Germans.

"KEEP SMILING," THE SCOTCHMAN'S ADAGE

British Officer Photographed. You would scarcely believe it, but every one of these men is suffering from a wound received in the German offensive. They are trading their way to the casualty clearing station just as cheerfully as though on their way to some sort of entertainment. Note the tags given some of them at the advance dressing station. These describe the nature of their wounds.

EUSAPIA PALLADINO, ITALIAN MEDIUM, DIES

Woman Who Puzzled Europe for Twenty Years Succumbs at Naples

London Information Ministry Contradicts New York Report That Three Shells Reached Dover

Dover

Rome, May 18.—Eusapia Palladino, Italian medium, whose methods were exposed in the United States after her death in 1915, died in Naples. She was sixty years old. In 1915 she predicted that the war would end in September, and the full particulars of that prophecy are contained in her last will, together with the provision that the money be made public on the first anniversary of her death.

After winning the approval of Cesare Lombroso, Sir Oliver Lodge, and other famous scientists of the time, Palladino came to this country in November, 1915, to submit to tests by American psychologists who had become deeply interested in her table movements, spirit rappings, ghost breezes and many other phenomena which she claimed to invoke by supernatural means.

By her friends she was described as a woman of a peculiarly arched back, a clear complexion and an intellectual manner. How truly her acrobatic performances were remembered for the time being, she was a woman of a peculiarly arched back, a clear complexion and an intellectual manner.
